

PURSUING A CAREER IN

Business Management & Sales

AT CHRISTENDOM COLLEGE

With a liberal arts degree from Christendom College, you can go into a diverse range of career fields, including the field of business management and sales. Alumni have been successful entering these fields due to their broad-based liberal arts education, coupled with their excellent leadership skills, abilities to analyze situations effectively, to be innovative in thought, and their exceptional communication skills.

Employers find them to be very quick learners who advance in their companies, often becoming the chief officers, presidents, directors, or top executives. With their broad-based formative education, unmatched interpersonal skills, and a desire to treat people with respect and dignity, Christendom alumni have excelled in the industry – even without a specific degree in the field.

Essential Skills Acquired Through a Liberal Arts Education:

- Analytical thinking
- Problem-solving and innovation
- Knowledge of ethics
- Communication skills
- Empathy and understanding
- Experience with a variety of academic fields of study

"A student's undergraduate experience, and how well the experience advances critical learning outcomes (knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world, intellectual and practical skills, personal and social responsibility, integrative and applied learning), is what matters most, with 80% of employers agreeing that all students need a strong foundation in the liberal arts and sciences. Indeed, in the global knowledge economy, employer demand for graduates with a liberal education is growing." - Harvard Business Review

Career and Vocational Discernment Assistance

We will help you prepare for post-graduation success, whether you choose to enter the workforce immediately, attend graduate school, join a religious community or enroll in a seminary, or pursue marriage. Through the educational and vibrantly Catholic cultural experiences offered, you will be well prepared to strive for excellence and achieve success: 98.8% of the Class of 2020 were employed or in graduate school within 6 months of graduation!

Throughout your four years on campus, you will take required career development courses as part of the curriculum through which you learn how to navigate the career discernment process and how to network, search for jobs, write resumes and cover letters, interview properly, and become financially literate.

Director of Career & Professional Development Kristin Stephens will also work individually with you to assist with your decision making process, and ensure you have the confidence you need as you move toward graduation.
