

PURSUING A CAREER IN

Law & Law Enforcement

AT CHRISTENDOM COLLEGE

With a liberal arts degree from Christendom College, you can go into a diverse range of career fields, including the world of law and law enforcement. Alumni have been successful entering these fields due to their broad-based liberal arts education, coupled with their excellent written communication skills, logical and analytical thinking abilities, virtuous natures, and a deep understanding of human nature.

Employers find them to be excellent communicators, diligent workers, quick learners, people of integrity, with exceptional interpersonal skills. With their understanding of the moral and natural law, their commitment to the search for truth, and their dedication to living lives of integrity, Christendom alumni have excelled at law school and in the industry.

Essential Skills Acquired Through a Liberal Arts Education:

- Analytical and logical thinking
- Problem-solving
- Knowledge of ethics
- Communication skills
- Time management skills
- Leadership and teamwork

"Law schools accept students with bachelor's degrees in any field. The American Bar Association does not recommend any particular undergraduate course of study to prepare for law school....Degrees in social sciences or liberal arts can also prepare you for general law education." - Educational Options for Aspiring Law Students, Learn.org

Career and Vocational Discernment Assistance

We will help you prepare for post-graduation success, whether you choose to enter the workforce immediately, attend graduate school, join a religious community or enroll in a seminary, or pursue marriage. Through the educational and vibrantly Catholic cultural experiences offered, you will be well prepared to strive for excellence and achieve success: 98.8% of the Class of 2020 were employed or in graduate school within 6 months of graduation!

Throughout your four years on campus, you will take required career development courses as part of the curriculum through which you learn how to navigate the career discernment process and how to network, search for jobs, write resumes and cover letters, interview properly, and become financially literate.

Director of Career & Professional Development Kristin Stephens will also work individually with you to assist with your decision making process, and ensure you have the confidence you need as you move toward graduation.
