All students must pass each course in order to graduate from Christendom College. Class dress code is required. See syllabus for location of class, grading system, and requirements.

If you are unable to make one of your scheduled class sections, you are welcome to ask the professor to change to a different section of that same class. As you can see, multiple sections are taught on different days of each week.

If you have a sports game or practice, another class, or an on-campus job that is causing you to miss your section, contact the professor to ask to move into a more convenient section.
